

Testimonials

Speaking

sage allan

Speaking Engagements (Partial List)

4th International Urban Design Conference - Qld

Main Conference Breakout session - Business Leadership in creating and using resilient urban cities

4th Health Cities Conference - Qld

Main Conference Breakout session - Community Decision Making in the Age of Climate Change

Women at Qantas

Half Day Seminar - Networking Makes Business Sense

National Women in Construction

Key Note - Finding Work/Life Balance

Planning Institute of Australia \(NSW\)

Master of Ceremonies - Launch of the Institute's Inaugural Regional Development Chapter

National Women in Construction

Key Note - Rattling the Creativity Cage

Planning Institute of Australia - Brisbane Conference

Young Planners Full Day Seminar - Managing your communication and your career

Geyer Client Event

Key Note - Networking for Business

Planning Institute of Australia Annual Conference - Perth

Young Planners Breakout session - How planners facilitate the future environment

Planning Institute of Australia Annual Conference - Perth

Main Conference Break out session - Negotiating your way

BankWest Client Event

Key Note - The Value of the Future

Australian Institute of Management

Key Note - Rattling the Creativity Cage

Victorian Planning and Planning Law Association - Ballarat Conference

Master of Ceremonies - Two Day Conference - speaker list included David Suzuki.

---

Testimonials

TOPIC: Rattling the creativity cage
SPEAKING DATE: March 2006, Sydney
CONFERENCE HOST: National Association of Women in Construction

Great Presenter
Anna Montag, Arup

The presentation was very well done, as the presenter had a logical order and kept topic very vivid.
Gabriele Francis, Jackson Teece Architects

What I heard was very thought provoking. I want to know more!
Janine Sidhorn, Arup

Great presentation! Very interesting – particularly the info about the functioning on the brain.
Meighan Heard, Corrs Chambers Westgarth

Isabella took us through the concept of creativity and how we can activate it in an articulate and clear manner. The anecdotes were great.
Charmian Barton, Cutler Hughes + Harris

Thank you also for introducing current research.
Bronwyn Holland, University of Technology Sydney

Useful information in accepting and managing change in the workplace.
Menaka Kulatunge, Department of Commerce

Perhaps more time could have been spent on the practical application of creativity techniques in the workplace that the theory behind it. I liked the interactive exercises.
Michelle Norman, Department of Commerce

Great presentation, very interesting, thought provoking with a good level of information.
Leanne Laughton, Arup

On behalf of the NSW Chapter of the National Association of Women in Construction, I would like to thank you for your wonderful presentation last night at Baker & McKenzie.

Overall the evening was considered a great success, firstly as it was a sell-out, but most importantly we received positive feedback from several attending guests who enjoyed not only the hospitality but your thoughtful contribution.

We thank you again for your support of NAWIC and look forward to hearing about the feedback from the evaluation forms.
E. Williams, NAWIC NSW President

TOPIC: Rattling the creativity cage
SPEAKING DATE: March 2006
CONFERENCE HOST: Australian Institute of Management, Canberra

Liked participation, challenge, up to date information. Thanks.
Georgina Birchall

Liked the powerpoint presentation – very limited, not crowded with too much information. Structure of presentation is very organised – has linkage.
Jen Lynch Clients and Embassies Liaison Government Relations, KPMG

Thought provoking on interesting topic....
Geoff Knuckley, Ernst and Young

Venue, presenter, topic but not enough time (can't solve this point).
Richard King – Defence

Liked content, style of presentation very good.
Anonymous

Interesting topic, well delivered, good balance of do and listen.
Anonymous

Mix of theory and practice, good exercises.
Anonymous

Great pitch, thought provocative approach, a taste of future reading.
Anonymous

Introduced new ideas – thought provoking, energetic, creative – suggested improvements go a bit longer I got a taste but wanted to chew on something.
Anonymous

Lively presentation, liked topic knowledge.
Anonymous

Friendly style, interesting new work.
Anonymous

Very articulate and practiced – Fairly obvious that there's a lot more so a longer seminar.
Anonymous

For more information, please contact

Sage Allan Pty Ltd
PO Box Q1805 QVB
NSW Australia 1230

sageallan.com.au

sage allan
business wisdom